Code Sleeve 13

Stylish neoprene sleeve with pocket for accessories

Simplicity. Functionality. Inspired, contemporary design. These are the guiding principles that define the Code collection. Code sleeve is designed to fit Apple Macbooks but also other notebooks may fit.

The sleeve of the collection is the perfect choice for anyone wanting to have slim and practical protection for your notebook without renouncing on style. The sleeve is made of durable neoprene and has a soft faux fur lining that keeps the notebook safe from scratches. There is also a decorative polyester canvas on the front of the sleeve and it also has real leather details. Code Sleeve has a flexible pocket for accessories such as charger or mobile phone. Thanks to that the sleeve is equipped with two zipper pullers this allows you to charge an accessory stored in the pocket while on the go.
